

Privacy Policy

Dream Overland respects the identity and privacy of each person and acts in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations. Dream Overland shall not disclose, distribute or share information or personal data of its customers to third parties or companies without the prior written consent of customers. Customer data collected by Dream Overland will be treated solely to provide customers with the best possible service and to send them relevant information about Dream Overland's activities.

Customers can provide information by filling out forms on our website www.dreamoverland.com or by contacting us by phone, email or otherwise. This includes information provided when using our site, when subscribing to our newsletter, using social media or doing a research. The information provided to us may include name, address, email address and telephone number.

The www.dreamoverland.com site uses cookies to enhance the customer experience and deliver relevant content and products in the region in which they are currently located. We may use analytic cookies (including Google Analytics) to help us evaluate our use of our site (e.g., more popular areas) and improve the functionality of our site, but we do not use this information for any other purpose.

We will keep personal information safe by taking appropriate technical and organizational measures against unauthorized or illegal processing and loss, destruction or accidental damage. We may have to disclose your information to comply with any legal obligation or to enforce or enforce the terms and conditions of our site or to protect the rights, property or safety of third parties. This may include exchanging information with other companies and organizations for the purpose of fraud protection.

We may occasionally work with outside partners to conduct marketing activities. In this case, we will only share customer information with these partners if we have express permission from customers to do so.

Customers may ask us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes. If a customer does not wish to receive emails or marketing actions from Dream Overland, you can unsubscribe by clicking on the relevant link in the email footer or alternatively contacting us by e-mail: info@dreamoverland.com.

Dream Overland reserves the right to change the terms and conditions of this privacy policy without prior notice. Any changes made to our privacy policy in the future will be posted on our website www.dreamoverland.com
